

CARLUKE PARK AND RIDE

The site is to the south of the railway line at Carluke Station off Station Road, Carluke.

The works involved the construction of an access ramp and stairway with pre-cast retaining walls to allow access from the newly constructed park and ride facility at Carluke Railway Station.

The particular feature of the works is the contractor-designed retaining walls which are faced in attractive natural stone.

CLIENT:	South Lanarkshire Council
ENGINEER / DESIGNER:	South Lanarkshire Council
CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT:	NEC3
DURATION OF WORKS:	February – April 2010
CONTRACT VALUE:	£400,000

Associated works included access street-lighting, security close-circuit TV installation and steel pedestrian parapets.